Message from the School

Langdon Elementary School's mission and vision, serving Pre-K - 5th grade students, is to support and inspire every child to think, to learn, to care, to be relentless, and to graduate prepared loving self, while making an impact on our changing world. Our Early Childhood programming includes: Montessori & Creative Curriculum. Our three priorities are building relationships to foster life-long learning, using data to drive instruction, and continually providing high engagement to support all students to find success.
